Art Unit 1713

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over EP 945482 or GB 1342889.

The rejection as set forth under 35 U.S.C. § 103 in Paper No. 3 is deemed proper and is herein repeated.

Applicants' newly amended claims as well as the remarks filed in support thereof have been fully considered but have been deemed to be not persuasive.

With respect to the European patent application, applicants argue that the specifically claimed combination of components B and C is not shown within the reference. This is not persuasive. The dithiophosphoric acid compound as shown specifically at paragraph 32 is seen to read on applicants' component D. The disclosure at page 8 specifically paragraph 44 as well as page 9 paragraph 49 clearly suggests the combination of applicants' instantly claimed B and C components. The Examples at page 12

Table 2 disclose the specifically claimed combination and the addition of sulfur is shown at page 11 line 42. As such, the Examiner's arguments are found to be not persuasive.

With respect to the British patent, applicants argue that there is no disclosure wherein the combination of components A-D are set forth. This is not persuasive. The specification at page 1 lines 35-70 as well as page 2 lines 15-25 show components B and C. The rubber is shown at page 1 lines 71-80. Sulfur is clearly exemplified and as such applicants' arguments are found not to be persuasive.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicants are reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a). The practice of automatically extending the shortened statutory period an additional month upon the filing of a timely first response to a final rejection has been discontinued by the Office. See 1021 TMOG 35.

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR RESPONSE TO THIS FINAL ACTION IS SET TO EXPIRE THREE MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THIS ACTION. IN THE EVENT A FIRST RESPONSE IS FILED WITHIN TWO MONTHS OF THE MAILING DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION AND THE ADVISORY ACTION IS NOT MAILED UNTIL AFTER THE END OF THE THREE-MONTH SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD, THEN THE SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD WILL EXPIRE

ON THE DATE THE ADVISORY ACTION IS MAILED, AND ANY EXTENSION FEE PURSUANT TO 37 C.F.R. § 1.136(a) WILL BE CALCULATED FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THE ADVISORY ACTION. IN NO EVENT WILL THE STATUTORY PERIOD FOR RESPONSE EXPIRE LATER THAN SIX MONTHS FROM THE DATE OF THIS FINAL ACTION.
